

DEATHSCAPES: MAPPING RACE AND VIOLENCE IN SETTLER SOCIETIES

Deathscapes Website Preview
and Discussion of Indigenous and Racialized Deaths in Custody

SEPTEMBER 22, 2017 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Nexus Lounge, 12th floor, OISE, 252 Bloor Street W, Toronto

Deathscapes is a virtual project that maps state violence against Indigenous and racialized groups. Working across the U.S., Canada, Australia, and the U.K./E.U., we analyze deaths in police cells, prisons, detention centres, and other custodial sites. As well, we examine advocacy and activism that aims to end racial violence.

Sponsored by the Centre for Integrative Anti-Racism Studies and the Department of Social Justice Education, OISE, UT.
