

MARIA GIANNACOPOULOS BIO:

Dr. Maria Giannacopoulos is Senior Lecturer in Socio-Legal Studies and Postgraduate Director for Law and Criminology in the College of Business Government and Law at Flinders University. She has a law and cultural theory background and conducts interdisciplinary research in the areas of sovereignty, colonialism and borders politics. She is currently writing a book for Palgrave titled Sovereign Debt, Austerity and the Endurance of Colonialism. She has written for The Conversation and for ABC Online on questions of race, law and colonialism.